

Stefan Zickler, TÜV SÜD Industrie Service GmbH

Stefan Zickler studied mechanical engineering at the University of Stuttgart. Thereafter, he started his professional career at the Materials Testing Institute at the University of Stuttgart, where he has gained profound experience operating high pressure hydrogen autoclaves. As of September 2021 Stefan Zickler is employed by TÜV SÜD in Filderstadt, where he is responsible for plant- and pipeline-safety.